
Reference: near−eye exposure. Factors are converted after averaging log differences over days within participants, then participants.
Logarithmic axis; 1 indicates equal exposure. Counts and hourly support are exported with the figure data.